Ideally situated in Chassagne-Montrachet, in the heart of Bourgogne's finest white wine region, this vineyard flourishes at an altitude of 225 metres. Just a stone's throw from the prestigious Morgeot Premier Cru, this exceptional terroir perfectly combines calcareous marl, clay and fine gravel.

From this incredible soil comes a Chassagne-Montrachet of rare finesse, power and elegance. On the nose, its airy bouquet reveals delicate aromas of white flowers and stone fruits, subtly enhanced by a hint of salt and minerality. On the palate, the journey continues through a full-bodied, persistent and perfectly balanced texture.

A wine that rewards patience and cellaring, it will develop beautifully over the next ten years. A great wine for fine dining and deep emotion.
