Nestled in the heart of Saint-Aubin, a revered centre for Chardonnay, this Premier Cru-classified plot thrives on a protected hillside at an altitude of 240 metres. This exceptional terroir owes its distinction to its immediate proximity to the famous vines of Chassagne-Montrachet Premier Cru “Les Commes”.

Here, the 40-year-old vines are rooted in a clay-limestone soil mixed with dark red alluvium. This unique geological foundation imparts a depth and concentration, while retaining a crisp freshness that gives the Chardonnay its tension and balance.

The nose blends ripe citrus, white flowers, and white-fleshed fruits, set against a delicate mineral backdrop. On the palate, the wine is dense and full-bodied, supported by a lovely freshness and a long, briny finish.

A deep, taut, and elegant Saint-Aubin Premier Cru, blending rich substance with mineral freshness. Already outstanding in its precision, this wine also delivers the structure and energy required for it to gain in complexity after five years in the cellar and beyond.
